W.P.No. 1544 of 2005 (S/S)
(Old No. 9399 of 1990)

Hon. P.C. Pant, J.

Heard Mr. Tanuj Semwal, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Pramod Belwal, learned counsel for the respondents.

The petitioner was a daily wage worker with the respondent Corporation, whose services were terminated by said Corporation. The petitioner has no right to continue, as he was a daily wage worker.

In view of principal of low laid down in Secretary State of Karnataka Vs. Uma Devi, reported in (2006) 4 Supreme Court Cases Page 01, that daily wage workers or the persons who get employed without undergoing regular selection process, should not be permitted to be absorbed against the Constitutional Scheme of Public employment, this Court is not inclined to grant any reliefs prayed by the petitioner, in the writ petition,

This writ petition (which is received from the Allahabad High Court by way of transfer) is, hereby dismissed at the admission stage, itself.

Interim order, if any, stands vacated.
